Mappa attiva

CLIL

AFTER WORLD WAR II

- New tensions pit the US and the Soviet Union against each other
- Nazis captured by the Allies are tried by the Nuremberg Tribunal
- The United Nations is founded
  - It is based in New York
  - It consists of the General Assembly and the Security Council, made up of five nations: USA, USSR, France, UK, China
  - Establishes the State of Israel, which declares its independence in 1948
    - The first Arab-Israeli conflict is won by Israel
- The idea of a united Europe is born
  - It is foreshadowed by the Ventotene Manifesto
  - 1950: the integration process is launched by a declaration of French minister Schuman
  - Its first institution is the ECSC, which pools the production of coal and steel